

Maui Drought Committee

Membership and Leadership

The Maui County/Local Drought Committee (hereafter referred to as “Maui Drought Committee”) is comprised of representatives from key governmental agencies, non-governmental organizations, and major landowners with an active interest in drought-related issues. Based on participation in the drought workshops, the present membership includes the following individuals, agencies and entities:

Bob Collum, County of Maui Civil Defense Agency
John Cummings, Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) Division of Forestry and Wildlife,
Lance DeSilva, DLNR Division of Forestry and Wildlife
Harold Edwards, Molokai Ranch
Jeff Eng, County of Maui Department of Water Supply
Sumner Erdman, Ulupalakua Ranch
Ranae Ganske, U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Natural Resources Conservation Service
David Gilliland, Molokai DOW Seed
Robert Granger, Molokai Irrigation System Water Users' Advisory Board, and the Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation - Molokai
Garret Hew, East Maui Irrigation Company and Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Company
James Ino, USDA-NRCS
Joe Kaakua, Lanai Water Company
Joloyce Kaia, Hana Soil & Water Conservation District
Mona Kapaku, Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, Maui District
Brian Kau, Hawaii Department of Agriculture
Carl Kaupalolo, MFD
Doug MacCluer, Central Maui Soil and Water Conservation District
George Maioho, Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, Molokai District
Wes Nohara, Maui Land & Pine
Jeff Pearson, Maui Land & Pine
Teena Rasmussen, Flower Grower
James Robello, USDA Farm Services Agency
Glenn Shishido, DLNR Division of Forestry and Wildlife
Warren Watanabe, Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation

a/o 7/2007